

1st Corinthians Chapter 6

1. Is it sinful for one Christian to take another Christian before a judge (i.e. the government) to settle a dispute? Why or why not?
2. If it is sinful to take a fellow Christian to court, then how is a dispute between two Christians to be settled?
3. Is it sinful to take a non-Christian or a company to court? Why or why not?
4. What does v7 teach? It is better to _____ than to _____. Hint. Multiple words can be used to fill each blank.
5. If a Christian owes you $10,000 and refuses to repay, how are you to get your money?
6. What does it mean in v2 and v3 that Christians will judge the world and angels?
7. What kind of people are not going to be saved?
8. How do these people compare to those who are going to be saved?
9. Paul says in v12, that all things are lawful for him. Does that mean that he has authority to do anything he wants (i.e. it is not sinful)? How does this verse apply to you and I?
10. If we are members of Christ as it says in v15, what does that imply about our conduct?
11. Are there different types of sins some of which are worse than others? Explain.
12. Does the Holy Spirit dwell in Christians?
13. What does this imply about our lives and how we should live?
