

Questions - Irresistible Grace & Evangelism

True or False

1. _____ Calvinists believe that no one can understand God's word until the Spirit operates directly on his heart to give him understanding.
  2. _____ Calvinists claim that God does this only for those who were unconditionally predestined to salvation before the world began.
  3. _____ They believe the Spirit operates on their hearts providing them with understanding and compelling them to obey.
4. If all the above are true, name one purpose for evangelism.
5. Why would God command men to preach to all creation, if only part of creation was 'capable' of responding? And, remember, the capability is given to those few by God.
- Some Calvinists add a "function of the word" to the work of the Spirit - meaning the Word does have some effect on man's heart. But, ultimately, they believe it is the Spirit that converts the heart.*
4. If the Spirit is responsible for man's actions, what would be the need for the scriptures?
